Intended Use

This Licence Template is intended for use by an organisation to issue an End User Licence for online supply of data, which allows internal use and value-adding but not the resale of the data.

The text of the licence should be incorporated in some mechanism that requires the user to view and then clearly acknowledge their acceptance of the terms of the licence by a verifiable action.

Crown Law Statement

The Crown Law Office, in the Queensland Department of Justice and Attorney General, has directly participated with QSIIS in settling the terms and conditions contained in this QSIIS licence template agreement, which is one of a series of QSIIS template agreements.

Crown Law considers this template licence agreement, in its present form, is appropriate for use by Queensland Government agencies, including Queensland Government departments, in the circumstances in which the document is stated to be intended to be used. Nevertheless Public Sector Agencies should seek legal advice as necessary.

In all the circumstances this agreement strikes a realistic balance between the rights and obligations of the parties especially having regard to the various sources from which the relevant data is provided and the various processes needed to produce or present the data.

This statement by Crown Law is not to be taken as legal advice provided to the general public or to the private sector. Members of the general public or private sector firms intending to use this template licence agreement should first obtain advice from their own legal advisers.
