

VISION	STRATEGIC PATHWAYS
Smart Spatial Solutions for Queensland	Awareness and alignment:
MISSION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maintain strong communication on spatial information activities Promote and market spatial information and the industry Support and collaborate with existing regional groups Conduct Smart Business Solution Seminar Series Collaborate with other spatial information governance groups Undertake relevant market and economic industry research
Our Purpose To provide strategic direction and a framework for the development and use of spatial information to support business, community and the environment across the State. Our Identity QSIC is uniquely characterised by all sectors of the industry meeting as equal partners to assure the progression and success of the Queensland spatial information industry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Government Industry Professions Academia 	Education and skills development:
STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Work with educational bodies to develop spatial information curriculum from Prep to Grade 12 (P-12) Collaborate with representative training / tertiary educational and industry bodies to identify develop and promote application of spatial information and skills development. Promote delivery of skills and capacity building
In support of the Queensland Government priorities (listed below), QSIC will set the direction and provide coordination for the development and maintenance of a Spatial Information Infrastructure that will contribute to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Protecting our children and enhancing community safety Delivering responsive government Growing a diverse economy and creating jobs Protecting the environment for a sustainable future Managing urban growth and building Queensland's regions Improving health care and strengthening services to the community Realising the Smart State through education, skills and innovation 	Capture once, use many:
KEY STRATEGIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promote cross-agency coordinated data capture programs Support the harmonisation of metadata repositories Promote the capture of metadata Promote Information Queensland as the portal for government, business, community and regions. Promote development of facilities for on-line/real time access and delivery of government spatial data resources at point-of-truth / authoritative source
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promote awareness of the spatial industry and align with national and jurisdictional initiatives. Support the education and skills development in the use and application of spatial information. Promote the information management concept of "capture once, use many". Provide strategic and policy leadership for the spatial information industry in Queensland. Support the establishment of critical applications within a spatial information framework. Reduce regulatory inhibitors to sharing and accessing spatial data. Advance innovation in spatial information research and development. 	Strategic and Policy leadership:
CORPORATE CONDUCT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop effective working relationships between all sectors Enhance the QSIC Business Framework Keep abreast of emerging strategic and policy issues and evaluate their relevance to the spatial information industry
OUR ETHICS PRINCIPLE (Public Sector Ethics Act 1994)	Spatial information framework/critical applications:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respect for the law and the government Respect for persons Integrity Diligence Economy and efficiency 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promote and participate in the implementation of the Queensland Address Management Framework Assist in update and upgrade of fundamental spatial datasets. Investigate relationships and opportunities for alignment of administrative boundaries Identify opportunities for whole-of-government capture / purchase of spatial datasets Promote the development and use of customer focussed search tools with documented procedures Promote the development and adoption of QSIC standards for management of spatial information resources Support Information Queensland
OUR VALUES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Results focussed Ethical Standards, Honesty and Integrity Sound Customer Relationships People Effective Partnerships Communication Team Work 	Reduce Regulatory Inhibitors: Develop effective alliances and protocols for spatial data access, exchange and sharing between all levels of government. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhance the QSIC Business Framework through a standardised government information licensing framework Research and Development: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue collaboration with the CRC for Spatial Information Advance collaborative innovation in spatial information research and development